Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so very much, whatever the part.

Obituary

James Edward Jack was born on December 26, 1940 in West Point, Mississippi to the parents of Lillie Mae Randal and Littleton Jack of West Point, Mississippi. James affectionately known as "Jimmy James." James moved from West Point Mississippi to Chicago Illinois at the early age of 13. James graduated from Cooley High in Chicago, Illinois. Shortly after he met the love of his life Diantha Creggett.

James met Diantha in Chicago, IL and he ended up "romantically rescuing" her from becoming stranded one afternoon at a bus stop. They later were joined in holy matrimony on August 20th, 1973. This union created one daughter, Latashia Jack Johnson in 1975. James and Diane later relocated to Dixon, Illinois where they lived for the past thirty-three years. While in Dixon, they enjoyed a blessed marriage.

James enjoyed movies, cooking, and catching up with friends and family on the phone. James loved people and always had something positive to say and was known to encourage and give very good advice.

James leaves to cherish his memories his daughter Latashia Johnson (Al), one grandson Dominique Johnson, and loving siblings, aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws, friends, and one great friend and caregiver Robin.

Virtuous Woman

*Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.*
